The motion carried by a unanimous voice vote.

Under old business, Mr. Lakritz shared some additional information regarding the use of a variety of techniques in the control of the spread of peanut oils. He reported that washing hands with soap and water was the best. The use of an alcohol sanitizer had no effect. The compromise suggested was a sanitizing wipe.

A member of the audience suggested using a foam product like the hospitals. Another parent raised a concern regarding the use of seat belts on our buses. Mrs. Hoven indicated that the board would look into the matter further.

There being nothing further to discuss, upon motion of Trustee Patnaude, seconded by Trustee Cooper Napolitano, the board considered a motion to adjourn at 8:15 pm. The motion carried by a unanimous voice vote.
